IMMACULATE CONCEPTION ACADEMY

A CRISTO REY SCHOOL IN THE DOMINICAN TRADITION

SCHOOL PROFILE

2011-2012

OUR CORPORATE WORK-STUDY MODEL

All Cristo Rey Network students participate in a Corporate Work-Study Program through which they finance most of the cost of their education, gain real world job experience, grow in self-confidence, and realize the relevance of their education. Some of the nation's largest corporations, such as Best Buy, Goldman Sachs, Price Waterhouse Coopers, Ernst & Young, and Texas Instruments are network corporate partners. This year Network schools will contract with corporations to secure more than 1,600 work-study jobs for our students. The Corporate Work-Study Program is the key to member schools' financial sustainability and long-term success. Assigned to a 4-member job sharing team, each student works 5 days per month to cover a standard 40-hour workweek. The team's income is divided up among the students and assigned to the school to cover a majority of the cost of their education. The academic schedule is structured such that a student never misses class time.

OUR SCHOOLS

The Cristo Rey Network is made up of 24 inner-city Catholic high schools across 21 cities, 17 states, and the District of Columbia. Our high schools are located in the following cities:

MISSION & OVERVIEW

The Cristo Rey Network prepares young people with limited options for success in college. Most of our students qualify for the federal free or reduced lunch program. The Cristo Rey Network of schools was founded in 2001 when leaders from groups in Portland, Oregon, Cleveland, Denver, and New York hoping to replicate Cristo Rey Jesuit High School of Chicago gathered for the first time to learn more about the model school. In 2003, the Cristo Rey Network was formally organized as a 501(c)(3) organization. The Members of the Cristo Rey Network are high schools approved by the Board. Each member school agrees to adhere to the 10 Mission Effectiveness Standards of the Cristo Rey Network. Today, dozens of foundations, including the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, and individual donors throughout the country have contributed to the efforts of the Cristo Rey Network.

Please contact the Network's Director of Postsecondary Initiatives, Chris Broughton, for further information on our University Partner Initiative.

SCHOOL AND COMMUNITY

Immaculate Conception Academy, serving San Francisco since 1883, is an all-girls Cristo Rey School in the Dominican tradition. ICA offers a college preparatory education complemented by a work component to students of limited means. Our program promotes academic excellence, life skills and service to God, family and community within a supportive and nurturing environment that encourages a diverse student body to become women of faith, learning, community, leadership and vision.
